

SERVICE OFFERING

A network connecting employers and skilled talent

Supported by RDÉE Canada's member organizations, in collaboration with Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC).

At the provincial level

RDÉE Canada's member organizations support you and make it easier to recruit francophone and bilingual talent already active in the local market.

- > Access to a diverse and qualified local talent pool
- > Recruitment events
- > Hiring support (grants may be available depending on the region)
- > Strategic networking
- > Training and HR Resources
- > Support for integration and retention

Concrete outcome: Direct support that helps cut costs, ensures successful hires, and saves valuable time.

At the national level

(with the exception of Quebec)

Through RDÉE Canada's pan-Canadian network, you benefit from greater visibility to attract qualified francophone and bilingual talent nationwide.

- > National Recruitment Events
- > Visibility for your recruitment efforts
- > Renforcement de votre marque employeur
- > Nationwide promotion of your company and career opportunities
- > Strategic networking
- > Training and HR Resources
- > Support for integration and retention

Concrete outcome: a national platform to hire faster, more effectively, and strengthen your employer brand.

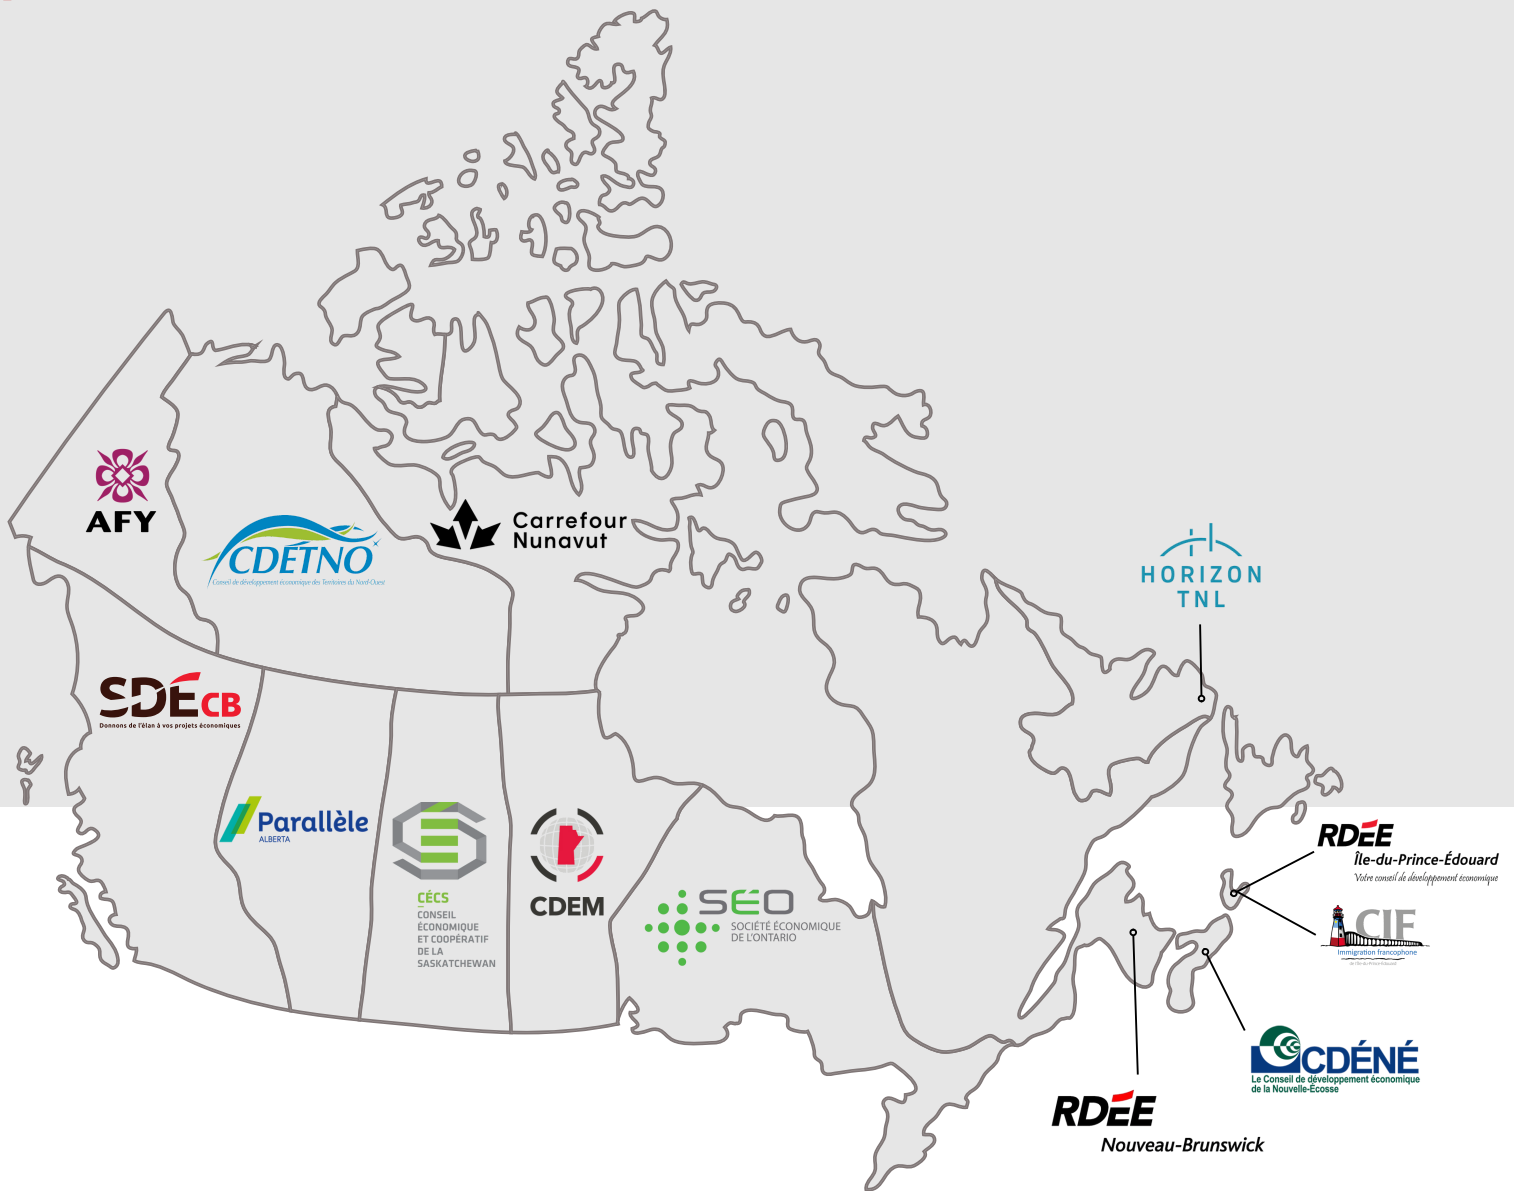

At the international level

RDÉE Canada's members make it easier for you to access francophone and bilingual talent pools around the world.

- > Support for international recruitment and federal processes (Express Entry, Francophone Mobility, IEC, IMP, TFWP, etc.)
- > Participation in Destination Canada Mobility Forum to meet qualified candidates directly
- > International promotion of your job offers and increased visibility
- > Networking with IRCC, community partners, and international public employment services

Concrete outcome: a way to address specialized needs and build more diverse teams.
